

It was a picture perfect sunset wedding for Brianne and Zach at the Renaissance Beach Resort

Surrounded by family and friends, Allison Brianne Hatfield and Zach Howell tied the knot on Friday evening in the tranquil surroundings of the beach and lagoon of the Renaissance Aruba Beach Resort. Joining them in Aruba for this special event and giving away the bride was her father Danny Hatfield, joined by his wife Annamarie, and close by was Brianne's mother, Debbie Wade with her husband Jack. Maid of honor for the ceremony was sister Bethany, and Zach's father John stood for him as best man. High school sweethearts, the couple chose Aruba for their wedding as Brianne (as she prefers to be called) was adamant about having a small, informal wedding on the beach. The entire family expressed that they were completely enchanted with Aruba, and could not have asked for a more beautiful setting. They all admit, it was something totally different than the nuptials they would have had back in their home town of Knoxville, Tennessee, and a charming change. Congratulations to Zach and his new bride, Brianne, joined in love and commitment, may treasured moments like this, surrounded by loving family, continue to fill your days together.
